

Four - Dedication

Take your pick, name either your four favorite desserts, sports, places, or promises. Why did you pick those 4?

As a church “We are here to glorify God and love as many people to Jesus as we can before we die. Period.” So what does that mean for you?

Read: Exodus 6:6-7

6 “Therefore, say to the people of Israel: ‘I am the Lord. I will free you from your oppression and will rescue you from your slavery in Egypt. I will redeem you with a powerful arm and great acts of judgment. 7 I will claim you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the Lord your God who has freed you from your oppression in Egypt.’”

-Exodus 6:6-7 NLT

The First Promise is to be freed from our oppression. What does it mean to be oppressed? Is this an issue for everyone, or just some?

Difficult times don’t erase God’s promises, they underscores them. Can you share of a time when you faced difficulty and your faith actually increased as a result?

Is it like that every time? What could God’s be purpose be in that?

The Cup of Dedication is about being set apart, to be used for a specific, or dedicated purpose. God has this in mind for all of us. How have you discovered your purpose? How has it changed over the years?

Growth Track here at LifePoint is designed to help people take thier next steps in faith, from Step One in Membership, Step 2 in Discovering Your Gifts, Step 3 in Leadership, and Step 4 joining a Team. What if everyone took the time to not only discover that they have gifts, but how to use them for the Lord. What kind of impact could the church make?

What is your next step?

Take time to close in prayer. Please pray specifically for the Eggstravaganza, for our church to reach the Least, the Last, and the Lost, and for the vision of our church moving forward.
