

“The Israelites did evil in the eyes of the Lord, and for seven years he gave them into the hands of the Midianites.” – Judges 6:1

- When was the last time you were stuck in a situation beyond your control, where you were perhaps asked to do something you didn't like or agree with?

“[Midian] came up with their livestock and their tents like swarms of locusts. It was impossible to count them or their camels; they invaded then land to ravage it.” – Judges 6:5

- Tell us about the most recent time you felt totally overwhelmed by your circumstances.
- Who helped or is helping you through this season?

“That same night the Lord said to him, ‘Take the second bull from your father’s herd, the one seven years old. Tear down you father’s alter to Baal and cut down the Asherah pole beside it. Then build a proper kind of alter to the Lord your God on the top of this height. Using the wood of the Asherah pole that you cut down, offer the second bull as a burnt offering.’” – Judges 6:25-26

- When have you felt like you needed to act against someone you respected because they were acting in an inappropriate or vulgar way?
- How did you handle it?
- What was the outcome?

“The Lord turned to him and said, ‘Go in the strength you have and save Israel out of Midian’s hand. Am I not sending you?’” – Judges 6:14

- What bold thing has God called you to?
- What is your next step on that journey?
- Who can help you?
