

Between The Lines - Keep It Between The Lines

When you are at a kids ball game are you: a. looking at your phone, b. quietly urging them to do thier best, c. the crazy fan banging the cowbell, d. the psycho parent yelling at the ref?

People are pretty smart, why can't we just define our own lines to live by?

Read: Joshua 1:6-9, Psalm 119:9-16

Can you think of a specific time when you: were spared from a problem because you obeyed God's Word, even when it was hard? Can you share that time?

Read: 2 Timothy 3:15-17, Proverbs 30:5, Romans 15:4

Directions are only as good as the person's ability to follow them. Why is it so easy for us to find ourselves doing what we know we shouldn't be doing, yet still excusing that behavior?

How has God's Word given you, "hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled."

Take some time to close this session by reflecting on how you have seen God at work in your life this week. What verses, songs, conversations, etc. revealed Christ to you in your day to day?

Take time to close in prayer. We hope to see you or hear from you for the Pray 10k! Sept. 10m - 30, 6:00 AM at Central Campus, or live streamed on Facebook.
