Relentless - Breaking Free

How do you make the big decisions in your life? What does that process look like?

Read: Act 16:6-10

The Holy Spirit directs and checks. We are responsible to heed both. How has Holy Spirit done this in your life?

Emotions, people, and even the enemy can confuse us when it comes to what God is calling us to. How do I tell if this direction I am feeling is really God?

- Does this line up with Scripture?
- What do people who love Jesus and love me have to say?
- What other confirmation do I have?

How have you used these questions to determine God's will for your life? What other questions do you ask?

Read: Acts 16:11-15

Who are some of the great women of faith in your life?

What aspects of their lives and legacy do you want to adopt for your own life?

Faithful obedience endures long after we are gone. The story of the salvation of Man by the Grace of God is not yet complete. God is still writing it day by day and by our faith and obedience we will be written into that story or left in the margins of history.

Clearly, you are a letter from Christ showing the result of our ministry among you. This "letter" is written not with pen and ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. It is carved not on tablets of stone, but on human hearts.

-2 Corinthians 3:3 NLT

What does it mean to you that God is still writing His letters in our lives?

Read: Acts 16:16-26, John 8:36

Worship changes mindsets. When we engage with God in worship on a regular basis we will find ourselves being, doing and becoming more and more like Him in every way.

Has worship ever changed a bad situation into a good one in your life? How has that happened recently?

Read: Acts 16:27-34

How has God set you free? Are there any areas of your life where you still need God to break your chains?

Take time to pray for God's work to continue to bring freedom into our lives.
