

Hero Worship - Save The World

What do you think about the statement that “We aren’t called to save the world, because Jesus already has.”? Does it take the pressure off?

Read:

19 Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. 20 Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

-Matthew 28:19-20 NLT

The hope of the world is founded upon Jesus Christ, and Jesus entrusted His mission to the church. Jesus has already saved the world, He just needs us to tell everyone about it. On a scale of 1-10 how hard is this to accomplish?

How do we most effectively spread the word?

Preach the Gospel at all times, if necessary use words.

-St. Francis of Assisi

How does this flesh itself out?

When do we need to use words?

If the gospel is the diamond in the great salvific plan of God, then the church is the metal clasp that supports it, holds it up and shows it in its greatest light for all the world to see.

-Mez McConnell, Pastor, Church Planter, Missionary

How does the church help the Gospel message of Jesus shine?

How do we cast it in a bad light?

We have to proclaim the truth with our words and our deeds, how can this group do that together over the course of the summer?

How can your group LoveBomb Lebanon? Take time to plan an activity that your group can do to help people see the love of Jesus. It could be anything, get creative, set a date, and share your plan.

Be sure to take time to close in prayer.
