When has having the wrong friends got you in trouble? When has having the right friends helped you out? Which had a greater impact?

Read: Genesis 12:1-3, 13:1

Why do you think God called Abram away from everything he knew?

If he knew what he was called to do, why did Abram take Lot with him?

Read: Job 42:5, Psalm 122:1, Hebrews 10:24-25, Proverbs 13:20

Kelly said that to become the people God wants us to be, we need an Encounter with God, an Environment of growth, and to Evaluate our Group.

How has your own encounter with God changed you?

What is the most recent encounter you would like to share? How did it impact you?

How has church been an effective growth environment for you?

How could it be better?

Read: Matthew 7:1-2, Matthew 7:15-17

Why would Jesus warn us about judging, and then tell us to evaluate our relationships for spiritual fruit?

What do you do when your own fruit is spoiling? How do you even know?

How do you define commitment in any relationship?

On a scale of 1-10 how important is commitment to you?

How does an appraisal of commitment in a relationship determine what level of trust or expectation you place in someone?

We become what we are committed to. What are you committed to?

How do you reflect Christ in your relationships?

How can we pray for each other tonight?
