The Table.

The Teacher Chair - How do you teach yourself through the week?

Our DNA states that: We will tell the Greatest Story ever told in the most engaging way possible.

We will celebrate the message of Jesus Christ by telling His story in a way that is attractive to people who are far from Him and makes much of the Gospel that gives us Life.

Why is this important?

The Nonbeliever Chair. - What happens to our church if we stop being a place where nonbelievers feel comfortable?

READ: -Matthew 7:7

How was this verse true for you when you were seeking? What or who helped you keep asking the right questions?

The New Believer Chair. - What was your biggest question as a new believer? Was the answer you found or the process of finding it more beneficial?

READ: -1 Peter 2:1-3 NLT

What is the point of craving “pure spiritual milk?”

The Mature/ING Believers Chair. - How can you tell if you are in this chair or not? Who is one person that would help you think clearly on this without flattery? Have you talked with them?

READ: - Philippians 1:6

What comfort does this verse bring?

READ: Philippians 3:12-13 NLT

This morning Kelly said: “It’s not about the perfection of our performance but rather the perfection of our love for God.”

Is this true? How does pursuit of the latter help us with the former?

READ: James 2:17-22

If mature believers know that the blessing of God isn't gained by adding to their knowledge of His Word but by doing what it says. Then why is it so easy to get off track with this and slide into the high chair?

God wants us to grow because when we do, WE become the church God wants us to be, and the Church this lost and dying world NEEDS us to be.

What is something this group can do together to help point our community to Jesus?

Close in prayer.
